

Product Two: Costumes

By: Liz Cox

Pictures of Costumes that We Already Own

Most of these costumes were found in the loft and my closet.

Time Spent Searching for Costumes

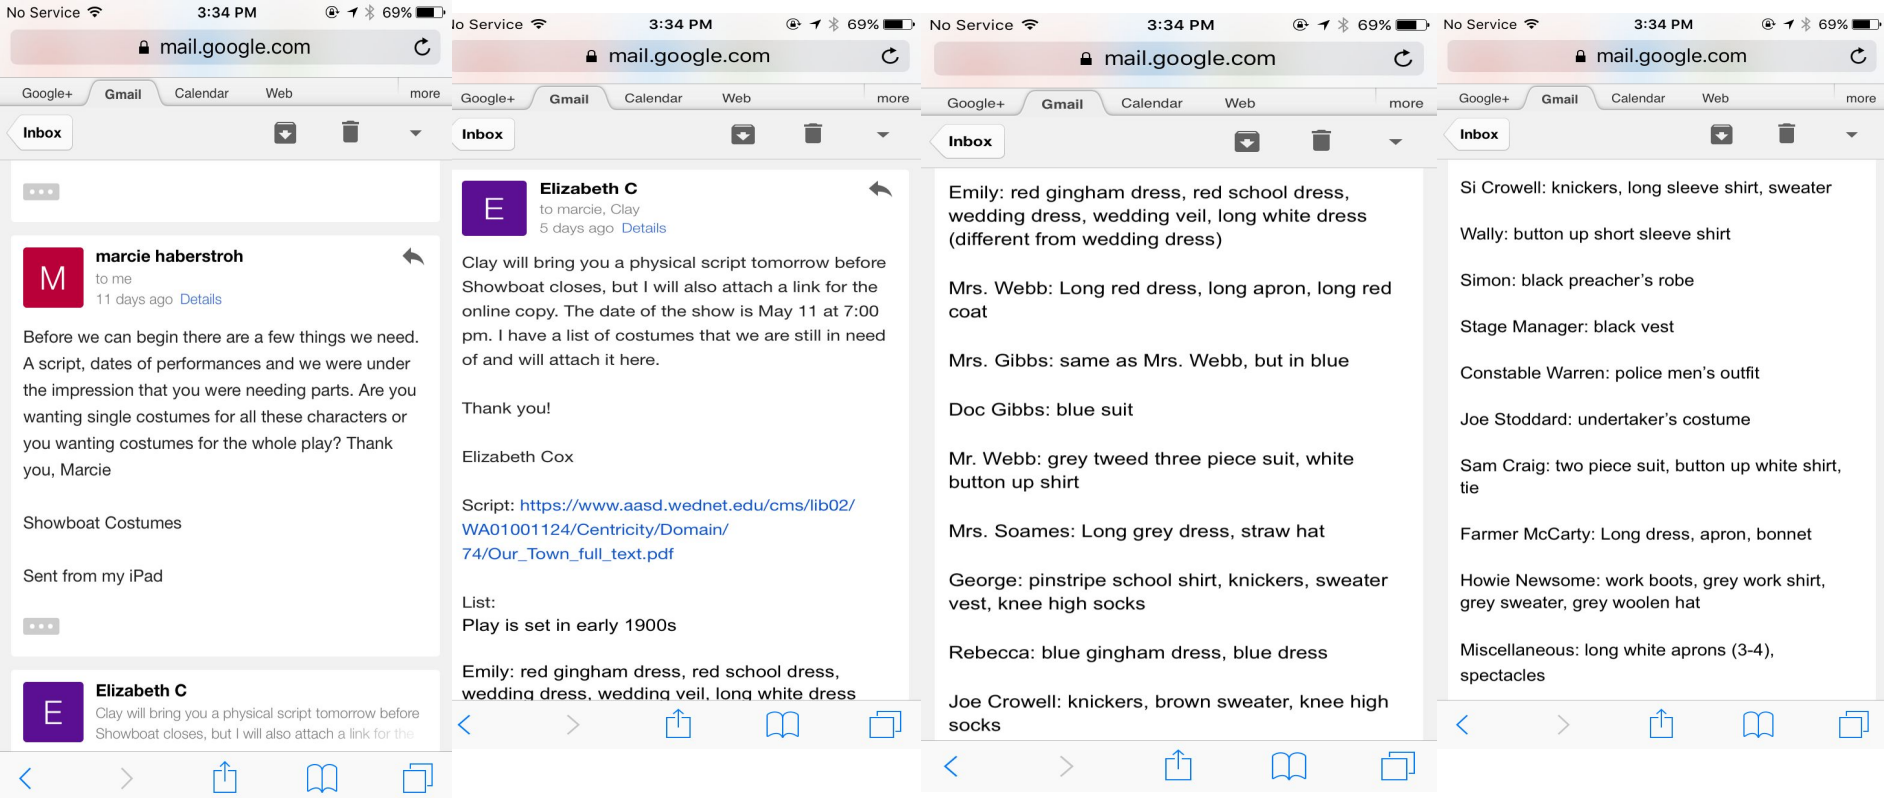

On Thursday April 27, Clay and I went to Chaz's house and found costumes that we could use for Our Town. Among our finds were a priest's robe for Simon Stimson and a police uniform for Constable Warren.

Time Spent Searching for Costumes

We have also contacted Showboat Costumes and given them a list of our costume needs. The major pieces that we wouldn't be able to provide are Emily's Wedding dress and the mothers' outfits. Most of the women's pieces would be difficult for us to find by ourselves.

Email Correspondence With Showboat

Script Notes and Initial Thoughts

The script that we were provided with has costume notes in the stage directions, and also has a costume plot in the back with suggestions for every character in every act. Some of the specific references were a blue gingham dress for Rebecca, tweed suit for Mr. Webb, and overalls for Howie Newsome. One of the things I'm incorporating into the show is the significance of color. The Gibbs and the Webbs will have colors that correspond with their families (Gibbs is blue and Webbs is red). I think it will help differentiate in characters and families, making it easier to track who is who in which family.